Hacking School Discipline: 9 Ways to Create a Culture of Empathy and Responsibility Using Restorative Justice

Presented by Nathan Maynard

Are you or your teachers frustrated with carrots and sticks, detention rooms, and suspension—antiquated school discipline practices that simply do not work with the students entering our classrooms today? Our kids have complex needs and backgrounds, and we must empower and embrace them with restorative practices that not only change behaviors but transform students into productive citizens, accountable for their own actions. Replace traditional school discipline with a proven system, founded on restorative justice. Nathan Maynard will demonstrate how to eliminate punishment and build a culture of responsibility and empathy. We will go over the why and some starting points to focus on relationships as the focal point.
