Building a Classroom of Diversity & Inclusion: Why Diverse Classrooms Perform Better and Build Resilience

Presented by Kira Nurieli

The data shows that businesses that have more diverse leadership bodies are over 30% more innovative and produce better results than those with less-diverse populations. Why does diversity and inclusion matter, and how can you embrace it in your classroom? This workshop addresses both strong and subtle ways of implementing practices that underscore diversity and inclusion in classes and schools. Participants come away with greater sensitivity to minority and differently-abled populations, how to think more broadly about inclusion, and practical methods for promoting diversity & inclusion in their classrooms and schools.
