Is Your ELA Curriculum Out of Whack? Align It!

Presented by Victor Jaccarino

Are you creating, revising, or reviewing your ELA curriculum? The NYSED Guide for Aligning Local Curricula to the Next Generation English Language Arts Learning Standards can be used by curriculum writers and classroom teachers to evaluate the degree of standards alignment of existing or proposed ELA units. During this interactive session, you will be invited to make connections to the Next Generation ELA Learning Standards and the indicators for high quality instruction. In addition, participants will explore the document, paying attention to its utility in both creating, aligning and adjusting new units of study to the Next Generation ELA Standards. Participants may bring present curriculum unit and/or lessons that are part of a unit that need adjustment or alignment.

Recognized throughout New York State as an expert in standards based curriculum and teaching, Victor Jaccarino has presented numerous workshops on literacy, and best practices in both the ELA and Content Area classrooms, conducting workshops throughout the state and country. Over the last six years, he has been working in many school districts with teachers and administrators promoting pedagogy that supports critical thinking, collaboration, and literacy in all subject areas. In addition, he has worked with school districts to develop curriculum that is standards based. Victor, a retired Chair of English from the Herricks Public School System, Program Director for Graduate Studies in English Education at Hofstra University, a Past President of both the Long Island Language Arts Council and the New York State English Council, has sat on the Board of the Conference on English Leadership, and chaired the NCTE convention in New York City. He has worked closely with and been a team leader for the NYSED, writing and reviewing State Learning Standards. In addition, he has worked on a number of Regents initiatives on standards based instruction and assessment projects. Victor represents Eastern Suffolk BOCES on the Statewide ELA curriculum development team.
