SIX THINKING HATS®:

A One Day Program for a More Creative, Collaborative and Effective Team

Presented by James P. (Pat) Carlisle, President, The de Bono Group, LLC

Tuesday, November 15, 2022 • 8:30 am – 4:00 pm

In-Person at the Instructional Support Center @ Sequoya, 750 Waverly Ave, Holtsville

You and your school team members can learn how to separate thinking into six clear functions and roles. Each thinking role is identified with a colored symbolic “thinking hat.” By mentally wearing and switching “hats,” you can easily focus or redirect thoughts, the conversation, or the meeting.

Ignite Your S.H.I.N.E

Presented by LaVonna Roth, Author and International Presenter

Friday, December 16, 2022 • 9:00 am – 12:00 pm

Live Online via Zoom

Leadership is both rewarding and challenging. At its core, leadership is a calling that is not for the faint of heart. That being stated, the pandemic created the perfect storm for many exceptional leaders, like yourself. As a leader in your school community, you likely found yourself being challenged in ways that you had never before experienced or anticipated. Join us for an engaging and experiential time that will enlighten you, inspire you, and give you the tools to rejuvenate YOU and your staff.

Manage Your Time or Your Time Will Manage You

Presented by PJ Caposey, Author and National Presenter

Thursday, January 19, 2023 • 8:30 am – 12:30 pm

Live Online via Zoom

You have a daily to-do list consisting of several dozen items. You're always busy, but you never really feel productive. You know what you need to get done, but you can't figure out where to start. You routinely agree to help others with their tasks but can't make headway with your own work. Sound familiar? This book offers a blueprint for both. It will help you better understand yourself and the behaviors of those you work with or lead, promoting more productive teaching and leadership—and greater peace of mind.
