ACT® TEST PREPARATION
College bound? More and more students are entering the world of higher education and the competition to get in to the best universities is high. Most universities and colleges now require students to take the ACT® or SAT®. Preparing for the ACT® is different than other exams in that it doesn’t have a practice test as with the PSAT® and SAT®. This course will focus on different format, timing, scoring and science sections so that there is less unfamiliarity to overcome. This course is offered in collaboration with The Center for Legal Studies. Visit http://www.legalstudies.com/vendor/es-boces/ to register.

LSAT® TEST PREPARATION
Applying to law school means taking the Law School Admissions Test (LSAT®). You will receive an overview of law school survival techniques. It includes an intensive review of reading comprehension and logical reasoning questions, including techniques for quick elimination of incorrect answers and approaches for selecting the correct answer. You will also learn the outline format that law school admissions counselors favor for the writing sample. This course is offered in collaboration with The Center for Legal Studies.
